CRAB ORCHARD.

The ladies of the C. W. B. M. contemplate a ladies' exchange in the near future.

Rev. Wheatley, of Danville, will preach at the Baptist church Sunday next. Eld. J. G. Livingston had a good hearing Sunday morning and night.

Mr. Sam Holman continues very feeble. Mr. Dan Holman's condition is somewhat improved. Mrs. Sarah Brooks is still on the sick list. Mrs. J. J. Brooks is suffering with grip.

The valentine counters were thronged for several days before the day arrived and many valentines, principally comic ones, were exchanged by the young people and several older persons were also recipient of them.

Mr. Kilburn Stewart, one of our best young men, has gone to Halsey to accept a position in the coal mines of that vicinity. He is much missed, as he was ever ready to favor the needy and oblige his neighbors and friends whenever an opportunity occurred. The sick especially will miss him.

The little folks of our town had a very pleasant gathering at the Gover Hotel, in honor of Miss Ada Carter, of Rowland. Miss Arathusa Cloyd was called to the bedside of her father, who is sick at Rowland. The effects of the late Robert Fish, the colored barber, were sold at auction Wednesday and brought fair prices.

Mr. Smoot, of Owingsville, a guest at Crab Orchard Springs, met with quite a serious misfortune Sunday night. He was sitting in a large arm chair, wrapped in a heavy comforter, near the fire, and while asleep the comforter caught fire in some mysterious way and before he could extricate himself, he was seriously burned about the hands and feet. He will be confined to his room for some time with his burns.

The makers of maple sugar are bringing a quantity of extra nice sugar to town and are selling it at a reasonable price, 15 cents per pound. Our merchants all seem to be doing fairly well and a number of avenues to prosperity are opening up and we trust, with all our various industries, Crab Orchard will yet rise above the wrecks of the mournful past, and every citizen will rightly use their influence toward a general improvement as spring approaches.

The remains of Mrs. L. J. Slaughter reached here Saturday afternoon, accompanied by Mr. J. I. McKinney, of Montgomery, Ala., and Mr. J. Slaughter, of Flomaton, Ala. They were met at the train by a number of friends and the body was conveyed immediately to the cemetery, where after a few appropriate remarks by Dr. Doores, the interment took place. Mrs. Slaughter had gone to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. McKinney, in her genial Southern home, but the angel of death, ever hovering near, soon claimed her, and the remains were brought back to her old Kentucky home and laid to rest to await the resurrection morn. Mr. J. I. McKinney returned the same afternoon to Alabama and Mr. Slaughter left the following day for his home.

MIDDLEBURG.

Messrs. J. V. Coffey and W. T. Coulter have bought quite a lot of hogs within the past few days at from 3 to 3 1/2c.

Rev. George Green, pastor of the Baptist church at this place, received a message last Thursday stating that his mother was dying, when he immediately went to Covington, where she had lived for the past several years. Mrs. W. J. Godby, has been quite sick for some time, but is improving rapidly. Rev. Harden Newell filled the pulpit at the Baptist church here last Sunday.

Uncle Brice Edwards has been spending several days with relatives and friends at this place. Mr. Silas Wesley, of Bethelridge, will open up a new stock of general merchandise at this place within the next few days. Mr. Ples Goodin, of Louisville, is in our village this week on business. Misses Lena and Nora Lucas, of Texas, granddaughters of Col. H. H. McAninch, of this place, were to have arrived here on Wednesday night on a visit to relatives and friends. Matt, the four-year-old son of H. C. McWhorter, of this place is very sick of grip. G. R. J.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters have cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poison, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Penny, Drugist.

In self defense near Youngstown, O., Mrs. Aldrich shot and killed her drunken son.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

MANILA, P. I., Jan. 7.—Midst the strains of martial music and the cheers and screams of the "cheering hundreds," the transport Logan bearing the 41st Infantry Infantry steamed into Manila bay Thursday evening at exactly 7.10, thus ending a long and tiresome voyage of seven weeks. We lay at anchor out in the bay until Saturday morning when we were loaded on lighters and planted once more on terra firma. We are quartered at Nipa barracks, Malate, Manila, in the North-eastern part of the city, where we are supposed to be ready in 30 minutes notice to answer the "call to arms." We may be here a day, two days or possibly a week or longer or then we might be ordered to the firing line in an hour or so. Each soldier was issued 112 rounds of ammunition before we left the transport.

We drew Khaki clothing the day before we got into Singapore. Where we are now quartered is a paradise by the side of our quarters on the transport or even to our old camp in far away Pennsylvania State. We are in bamboo barracks. The bamboo is certainly a useful product of the tropics. The huge airy barracks—every part—is made of this product—even the nails (pegs), the ceiling, joist, covering, flooring, etc. We have space to spare and I only wish we could spend our term of service in such comfortable quarters, but such is war and a soldier don't know what hour or minute he will be ordered out to the scene of action miles away, carrying besides his arms, clothing, bedding and other paraphernalia, three days' rations. Each soldier now draws his rations; we are living exclusively on hard tack, corned beef, baked beans and coffee. It seems that each bean and fibre are counted. Our rations are scant, but we are now in the enemy's land where hardships are to be endured and such being the case I have no grumble to make, but am able to subsist on the thoughts of what I will play "havo" with when this "crucel war is over."

We are all broke, being last paid in Camp Meade, three weeks before our departure for Manila. I have not been able to meet up with any one I know yet, as most all the regiments are in the firing line. The South line is within seven miles of Manila, while the war in the North has almost closed. What little fighting is going on in the Northern part of Luzon is about 60 miles distant from this city. Mrs. Aguilardo, Aggie's helpmate, is in the city, a prisoner of war, she having surrendered together with a number of Aguilardo's staff officers in the North. The regiments in the North are chasing Aguilardo, but Aggie being so fond and being acquainted with every path and den of the mountains will doubtless keep them hunting for some time yet. It is generally thought that his giving up, surrendering, or being taken as a prisoner, as the case may be, will virtually end the war.

Our boys seem to have things their own way on the South line. Brilliant successes are attending our men on Panay and Iloilo. The brave Lt. Gilmore and band, who were held as prisoners so long by the insurgents, have at last been found and taken from the enemy. It seems to be only a matter of time when the insurrection will come to a close and the insurgents forced to yield to the military of the United States. Then on the other hand this war may not be ended for years. It is hard guessing and very few know how to take the Filipino. The Filipino citizens seem to be very friendly and welcome the incoming soldiery with cheers and handshaking. We are quartered near several hundred Spanish soldiers who are Filipino prisoners. I heard they had 18 months' pay coming to them. A transport loaded with Spanish prisoners left here Friday for Spain and in a few days these few—the remnant of the Spanish army that garrisoned these islands for so many years—will be en route to their far away Spanish homes and friends.

The 21st day of April, 1898, marked the beginning of a new era in the history of the United States. On that day the war with Spain was begun, which resulted in the extension of our boundaries so that now the sun never sets on the United States of America and its possessions. Of course we refer to Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippine Archipelago and a few other lesser islands. Before Dewey "fired the shot heard 'round the world'" the Philippines were known to the American people merely as a group of islands far away in the Pacific; now nine out of ten think of them as American territory. Perhaps not many know that Luzon, the largest, is as large as the State of Kentucky and the total area of the group (about 1,200 islands) is 116,000 square miles, or about five times that of New York State. Hardly less surprising is the fact that the Philippines comprise one of the richest countries on the globe. There are vast forests of rare dye and cabinet woods, such as ebony, mahogany, logwood, lignum vitae, etc.; various spices, coffee, tobacco, corn, cotton, wheat and other staples grow in great abundance, requiring little cultivation; oranges, lemons, bananas, pine apples, plantains and many other tropical fruits abound on every hand; the mineral resources of the islands include immense coal deposits, gold, copper, iron, zinc and sulphur.

The industries of the islands are yet in a primitive condition and modern machinery is all but unknown. The most familiar product is Manila hemp. This is made from a plant belonging to the banana family, which is so productive that four-year-old plants yield a ton per acre, and four or five crops a year can be gathered. This hemp sells readily in Manila at three cents a pound. The coconut industry is one in which immense profits are realized, $250 per acre not being unusual for a year's return. Every part of the tree is utilized, oil and wine being made from the fibre of the leaves and door mats from the husks.

The animals are deer, wild hogs, buffaloes, etc. The buffalo is the principal beast of burden. There are many crocodiles in the lakes and rivers; box constrictors and venomous snakes are plentiful in the forests; birds of gorgeous plumage flit from limb to limb; monkeys chatter in the tree tops; under foot are flowers of rarest hues, while overhead is the beautiful foliage whose rich prodigality is to be seen only in the tropics.

The population is variously estimated at from 8,000,000 to 10,000,000, mostly Malay and Chinese. The total of white and half-breed population is not above 80,000. The climate of the islands is hot, particularly along the coast, cyclones are not unknown, and earthquakes are frequent and severe. The heat is terrific and at times almost unbearable out in the sun; but nevertheless one can keep comfortable in the shade. The nights are pleasant. There are but two seasons, the rainy and dry. This is the dry season now. Rain falls about like it does in the States, but when the rainy season sets in, which is about the latter part of June, the water falls in torrents daily. The rainy season is very unhealthy and malaria is almost epidemic.

Manila, the Capital city of the Philippines, has a population of about 300,000, of which only a very small percent are whites. The Chinese population of the city numbers in the thousands. The city besides being on Manila Bay is situated on both sides of the Pasig river, which empties into the bay. A wall encircles the Eastern part of the city. This part of the city is designated as Walled City.

I must bring my letter to a close for fear of the ever-ready waste basket, the abiding place of the manuscript of so many writers. Ere this reaches the eyes of the reader, the 41st will be storming the trenches of, and sending consternation in, the ranks of the enemy. CLARENCE COLEMAN, Co. "K," 41st Inf. U. S. V., Manila, P. I.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF LINCOLN CO.

To a man at this distance, who has watched your political affairs, it looks as though you were hardly yet aware that you had been worked by a confidence man, and had been buncoed. The proof is this: Some five or six years ago one of your republican political blow-guns began a howl of "Rot-tenness in Frankfort—turn out the rascals—let us examine the books—reform—cut down expenses," and you took the bait and elected him; and his course since has proven my point. It looks to me that he is more to blame for Gov. Goebel's death than your "Hog-jaw Taylor." Think of how he organized his militia, how he was always ready to call out his troops, first ringing his alarm bell, and calling his militia to over-awe a previous Legislature; again calling them out at your late election in Louisville. He has always kept in close touch with his "little tin soldiers," as if he were afraid you would find out that he had put off a gold brick on you, and might raise a rum-pus over it. He stays in reach of the mountaineers and militia; was with Taylor "advising him," when Goebel was shot; still stays with him now, trying to get you into a Federal court over in Ohio. His anxiety to get into the U. S. Senate looks like the evidence is conclusive.

I know that he has been very friendly to the editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL and you have repaid him.

If Taylor is indicted, Bradley is also particeps criminis and is the "Power behind the Throne," as Taylor is a shallow-pated fool! I think we have as many Kentuckians and their descendants in Missouri as you have natives in Kentucky, but we would not elect a republican governor, if he offered every man of us a gold brick apiece and a gold watch in addition. One of your troubles is that you are too many politicians with too many theories, and want to prove them by voting contrary. You have "sown to the wind and are reaping a whirlwind of Hell." "Billy O." is like Joey B. in Dickens' Dombey and Son: "Sly, sir, devilish sly."

Select to Bryan and the party and shut your ears and mouths to everything else, and there may yet be a chance for you Kentucky cranks. JNO. O. MCALISTER, Ore. Cass Co., Missouri.

P. S. If you don't wish to publish this, please turn it over to Uncle Dave Vandever and ask him to hand it to my brother Joe. J. O. MCA.

THE APPETITE OF A GOAT

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. LANCASTER.

Miss Georgia Lewis is the guest of Mrs. A. H. Bastin.

Mr. Forest Stapp reports that he has 25 ewes that have produced 55 lambs this season. Mr. J. A. Robinson also reports a good yield and a favorable season.

The I. G. O. F. lodge here is one of the strongest in the State. They own a handsome hall and have just purchased a degree outfit at a cost of $250.

Squire Sam Johnson sold his farm of 380 acres near Bryantsville, at $50. R. Mote Robinson gets 195 acres, Nixon Perkins 125 and Dennis Foley, 60 acres.

Mrs. Mattie Curd Gibson and Mr. Clifford Weisner, both of Williamsburg, were married at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Barry, in Newport, at 7 P. M. Tuesday, Rev. Darle officiating.

Democrats are delighted with Judge Taft's decision, being glad to learn that the republicans can not wipe out the doctrine of State rights and that the matter must be settled by our own courts, which is all we claimed.

I am glad to note that Col. Jack Chinn favors my law to make it a felony to carry a pistol or to draw one in a public place. I have advocated such a law for a long time and I will do anything in my power to pass such a bill. Mr. James Maret tells me that the next meeting of the Kentucky Telephone Association, of which he is secretary, and A. H. Bastin president, will meet at Lexington, Winchester or Lancaster. Our citizens should invite them here.

Squire W. T. Pherigo promises to give me a statement proving that half a million of dollars of property is not listed in this county, including property in many different forms. Justice to other tax-payers demands that the matter be investigated.

The Williams Comedy Company is drawing good crowds to the opera house every night, which proves that the people are pleased with the performances, which are really splendid. They will give a matinee on Saturday at 2 P. M., admission 10 cents for children, and 15 cents for adults any where in the house.

On Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, Mr. George W. Bettis died, at his home in Lowell, of pneumonia in the 67th year of his age. The remains were buried in Lancaster cemetery Thursday at 11 A. M., funeral services being conducted by Eld. Jesse Walden at the grave. Deceased was a member of the Christian church, a worthy citizen, a kind father and husband and he had a host of friends in Lincoln and Garrard counties.

May 24 and 25 have been selected to hold the encampment of the G. A. R. for the department of Kentucky, in this city. On Wednesday night the following distinguished men were royally entertained at the Garrard: Joseph H. Browning, dep't com.; Capt. M. Minton, jr. vice commander-in-chief of Nat. dept.; John Blass, ass't Q. M. gen'l.; and Ashley Apperly, Inspector general, dep't Ky. Capt. Herndon and other members of the local post, with leading citizens, joined in making the evening pleasant and in perfecting arrangements to make the coming event one of genuine enjoyment for the veterans. The gates of the city will be thrown open, a large crowd is expected and a picnic will be given at Camp Dick Robinson, a familiar spot to many of them.

Chief of Police James Pierce served 15 warrants on Hunley Singleton, charging him with the illicit sale of liquor. The cases were called before Judge Brown Monday and the question of the validity of the city ordinance, under which the warrants were issued, being raised by Messrs. R. H. Tomlinson and L. L. Walker, attorneys for the defendant, a petition was filed asking for a writ of prohibition, which was granted, when City Attorney W. I. Williams and attorneys for defendant wrote a joint letter to Judge Saufley asking him to name a time and place for hearing the case. It will be very interesting as it involves the question of the right of the city council to pass an ordinance in conflict with a general State law, without the power having been given by the charter. The validity and operation of the local option law is also involved.

If the reader of this should chance to know of any one who is subject to attacks of bilious colic, he can do him no greater favor than to tell him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It always gives prompt relief. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

At Charleston, W. Va., a grocer died from a wound inflicted by his son as the result of a family quarrel over a comic valentine.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - FEB. 16, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

JUDGE TAFT, of the Federal court at Cincinnati, decided that it had no jurisdiction in the Kentucky cases, which was all well and good, but he could not keep from showing his republican bias and partisanship and went out of his way to characterize the Goebel election law as the most infamous statute that had ever come before the attention of a court, and also denounced in very vigorous terms the conditions that have existed in Kentucky as are cited in the bill of facts. All this was outside of the question and done to comfort Bradley and his allies, who had been shown to have no standing in court. Knocked out of all hope to get Federal aid, Taylor then recognized that we had courts in Kentucky and filed a suit before the circuit court in Louisville asking for an injunction against Gov. Beckham and Adjutant General Castleman for attempting to exercise the duties of their offices. He claims that he has honestly elected governor and has his certificate from the election commission and his right to the office must not be disputed. His attorneys are Helm & Bruce, Breckinridge & Shelby, W. H. Yost, W. O. Bradley, and A. E. Wilson. This suit is also an attempt to forestall the injunction suit against him and Marshall, which was filed the same day before Judge Cantrill at Frankfort, praying that they be restrained from usurping the offices they claim and enjoining them from unlawfully and wrongfully surrounding the capitol building with soldiers and excluding the Legislature and the courts. Gov. Beckham's attorneys are W. S. Pryor, Aaron Kohn, James Andrew Scott, Louis McQuown and John K. Hendrick. It won't take long for Judge Cantrill and Judge Barker to decide in favor of Gov. Beckham, since the only court having jurisdiction, the the Legislature, has decided that Goebel and Beckham were elected governor and lieutenant governor. The political combine assassinated Goebel with the hope of changing the result, but he was sworn in and now all hell and the republican party can not prevail against Beckham succeeding him.

THE Laurel county democrats are made of the genuine stuff and are not afraid to give utterance to their convictions. They met at London Monday and passed resolutions deploring the death of the gifted Goebel, and denouncing in unmeasured terms his assassination by republican conspirators and the many acts of usurpation by Taylor, adding that "We stand aghast at those of our fellow-townsmen who participated in the disgraceful proceedings at Frankfort." All the legislation which Gov. Goebel was instrumental in securing was endorsed, especially the election law, which they neither wish repealed or amended. That's the way to talk and act. Let the Goebel law remain as it is, for the present at least, or until a better can be devised.

TAYLOR is nearing the end of his rope. It won't be long now till he is ejected from the office he is in no wise fitted for and which he has disgraced beyond measure. If he gets his just dues, he will also soon be at the end of a rope with nothing to stand on but air. His every act since his induction to the office has been a disregard of decency, a defiance of the law, an inducement to crime and an incentive to anarchy. No one believes that he had the courage even to shoot Gov. Goebel in the back, but that he knows who did and that he was in the conspiracy of assassination, if not its chief promoter, no sane man can doubt.

JUDGE YOST, the most contemptible of the contemptible set who have gone back on democracy for revenue only, says if Taylor is thrown down by the State courts he will take the case to the supreme court of the United States on a writ of error. He is evidently whistling to keep the courage of his man Taylor from oozing entirely out of the ends of his fingers and to add another hope, even if it be a forlorn one, for the republicans.

WHEN, but the rats are mad with Judge Taft! They say he acted solely as the mouthpiece of McKinley, who told him what to do and they are giving the president hail Columbia. One rabid republican, who is a leading man in his section, says that he and his friends will not support McKinley again and he is for Roosevelt and Bradley for president and vice president.

MRS. CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT, of New York, was elected president of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, succeeding Susan B. Anthony. The new president has rather a peculiar patronymic, but if she is like her feline namesake, she can always be depended on to come back, even if she doesn't at first succeed.

THE Louisville Commercial says that Taylor has been suggested for vice president. Ye Gods and little fishes! No wonder the woodcock is speechless.

TAYLOR is getting brave and bold. Wednesday he ventured from the executive office to the executive mansion without an escort of bayonets, but he had two friends behind and two before and one on each side. He ought to know, and if he does not, these are to inform him, that no democrat would hurt a hair or a hide of him. All they want is that the law shall take its course, satisfied that if he gets justice his neck will pay the forfeit.

No paper in the State or country has done more for the cause of democracy and for law and order in the present unfortunate condition of affairs than the Courier Journal. It has given the news without color and has been the only reliable source of information, while Mr. Watterson's strong and forceful editorials on the situation have made for him thousands of new friends and given him a stronger hold on his old ones.

TAYLOR and Collier did not deign to notice the injunction proceedings against them for interfering in any manner with the meetings of the Legislature and Judge Cantrill made the injunction perpetual. As there was no one to appeal from the decision, it stands as the law without further adjudication from a higher court.

THE decision of Judge Taft is the same as saying to the State election board, "You can go ahead and turn the last one of the rascals out of the minor offices without let or hindrance from the Federal courts."

THE SITUATION AT LOUISVILLE AND FRANKFORT.

The official statement is issued that the court of appeals will resume its sittings at Frankfort Monday.

The House resolution inviting preachers who didn't defame Goebel to open the session with prayer was adopted by a vote of 45 to 8.

The State board of contest met in Frankfort yesterday to hear the minor contests, when an agreement of the attorneys as to evidence was signed.

Judge Taft held that public office in Kentucky is not property, but a trust, where compensation is only for services rendered. It is not even a contract.

Messrs. J. C. S. Blackburn, W. S. Pryor, James B. McCreary, Urey Woodson and Ben Johnson each subscribed $100 to the Goebel monument fund.

G. Allison Holland offered a bill in the House, which provides that Jan. 4 of each year shall be made a legal holiday in memory of the birth of Gov. Goebel.

The House adopted the Senate resolution calling on Taylor to remove his armed men from Frankfort, declaring him a usurper, and recognizing J. C. W. Beckham as governor of the State. A resolution was adopted in the House thanking all the judges except Toney for the manner in which they had helped to care for the members and see that proper protection was guaranteed them.

The Legislature continues to meet in Louisville with a quorum and transacts business and will until Taylor withdraws his janizaries. The rumpers at Frankfort meet and adjourn, having no quorum to do anything.

The Legislature at Louisville appointed a special committee to investigate and report upon the advisability of adjourning to Frankfort, it being the consensus of opinion that the body should remain in Louisville till the last soldier is sent from the capital.

William Goebel died young, but he lived long enough, even after he was shot, to fulfill a destiny that his assassins sought to cut off. He was sworn in as governor on his death bed, and saved the State of Kentucky from chaos and calamity.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Legislative committee found numerous evidences of vandalism around the Capitol and other public buildings, finding, among other things, that the desk used by the late Gov. Goebel in the Senate chamber had been broken open and otherwise mutilated.

What is believed to be the bullet which passed through the body of William Goebel was found imbedded in a hackberry tree on the State-house grounds. A line from the tree to the spot where Goebel fell leads to a window in the office of the secretary of State.

A joint caucus of the democratic members of the Legislature will be held Feb. 19 to nominate a candidate for the office of prison commissioner to succeed the Hon. Henry George, who is a candidate for re-election. The other candidates are G. V. Green, of Christian county, and G. W. Landram, of Livingston.

Under an order from Judge Field the sheriff of Jefferson county Tuesday took charge of box 559 in the vaults of the Louisville Trust Company and removed the $4,500 that had been deposited there by John H. Whallen for S. B. Harrel, he to turn the money over to Whallen if no other claimant appeared in 48 hours.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Three contests in the National House have so far been decided against democrats.

The constitutional term of 60 days will expire March 13, leaving less than four weeks of the Legislature.

Ex-Senator Gorman says it is hopeless to oppose the nomination of Bryan for president, and announces that he will support him.

Congressman Charles A. Chickering, of Copenhagen, N. Y., was found dead outside the Grand Union Hotel in New York City. He had either fallen or jumped from a fourth story window.

By a vote of 45 to 30 the Senate adopted an amendment to the financial bill, which holds out further hope of an international agreement for the free coinage of silver. Lindsay voted nay and Deboe yea.

MT. VERNON.

In what year did total eclipse of sun occur? '69 or '70?

The band boys' oyster supper at Miller Hotel was a delightful affair and a financial success.

Dr. M. Pennington has returned from Louisville, where he has been taking a special course of lectures.

Pete Langford, a darkey, who had worked many years on section here, died at Pine Hill Friday night.

Your type made us say the Houk-Adams building would be 36x50. Should read 36x80 and 36x50 basement or cellar.

There are nine cases of smallpox at Wilde, this county, none serious. Most of them have been discharged by the doctors.

Mrs. Eliza McCoy is dangerously ill and her recovery is despaired of. Her brothers, M. C. and J. D. Miller, were called home.

A six year old child of V. P. Freeman, near Pine Hill, died Friday afternoon from burns it received the day before by its clothing catching afire.

Nathan Bray brought to town 30 pairs of venison hams and was only offered 25c per pair. He asked 37c and rather than accept less he took them two miles into the country and buried them. This was some 45 years ago.

In Judge Williams' court two men were fined $20 and costs and a third one, a preacher, caught it for $30 on a charge of disturbing religious worship at Chestnut Ridge. The judge thought the preacher should pay the highest price for his fun.

We have always held up for Louis Landram under all circumstances, but the line is now drawn. The low down, mean trick he played on your humble servant with an old snuff box a few days ago puts him beyond the pale of humor forbearance. A court martial by the press is now in order to try him for treason against an inoffensive brother newspaper man.

Mrs. Armilda McClure, aged 76, died Saturday morning. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock Sunday. Mrs. McClure was the widow of Wm. McClure, familiarly known to everyone as "Uncle Billy." She was a woman whom every one admired for her goodness of heart and mind. She was the last surviving member of the old Pullins family of Garrard county.

Rockcastle's citizens held a memorial meeting at the court house here Saturday at 1 p. m. J. W. Brown called the meeting to order and Dr. Percy Benton was made chairman and James Maret, secretary. A committee on resolutions was named. The prayer of Rev. Stanley over the body of Gov. Goebel was feelingly read by Miss Ellen Butner. Miss Ida May Adams read in an eloquent manner the address of Rev. Arnold delivered at the Frankfort cemetery on the day of the governor's funeral. Judge Williams delivered an impressive address which reached the hearts of his hearers.

Circuit court began here Monday, Judge Morrow presiding. Quite a number of cases have been disposed of. About a dozen men were tried and sent to jail on old liquor cases. Eliza Langford's case, charged with killing J. L. King, continued. E. K. Wilson's trial was to have begun Thursday, but Judge Morrow was compelled to return to Somerset on account of his wife's illness and the case was continued to next term. Among the visiting attorneys we notice Judges Tinsley and Brown, J. A. Craft, Ed Parker, W. R. Ramsey, C. R. Brock, R. L. Ewell and A. L. Reid.

Mrs. J. L. Joplin has been ill. Dr. J. M. Williams went up to London last week and while there wandered into the new telegraph office and showed the boys he could yet handle a "quad" as well as he did years ago. J. J. Ping writes us that he is getting along nicely at Bryant & Stratton College, Louisville. Judge Morrow went home yesterday, in answer to a telephone message, saying his wife was worse. Their numerous friends in this county hope she will soon be on the road to recovery. Mrs. Helen Brooks, of Paris, is here to see her mother, Mrs. J. L. Joplin. Mrs. W. H. Brannaman, who has been ill for a long time, is improving.

Brodhead, Rockcastle County.

Jack Ballard says there is going to be a wedding in town this week. And of course Jack knows.

The two-year-old child of Jack Lance died last Saturday night. It had only been sick about 48 hours and its death caused some excitement.

W. H. Colyer, who has been on the sick list for some weeks, is no better at this writing. Jacob Todd is moving from this place to Pittsburg. James Crawford, who lives about one mile out of town, had a horse stolen last week. E. E. Protheroe, of Higginsport, O., has been spending a few days with his friends and relatives at this place.

The democrats of this section of the country think that the reason why W. S. Taylor does not send the troops away from Frankfort is that he fears being arrested on the charge of being connected with the assassination of Goebel, and not that he fears any violence at the hands of democrats, or that he fears that they will attempt to do him any harm. That it is law that he fears and not the violation of the law on the part of democrats, for he knows that democrats are asking nothing but the execution of the law.

Hon. Fontaine F. Bobbitt, of Crab Orchard, says if the grand jury of Franklin county will indict W. S. Taylor for being accessory to the assassination of Gov. Goebel that he, as an attorney at law, can take all the facts and circumstances connected with the case and convict him for murder; and if he fails to do so that he, Taylor, can be a free man henceforth and forever. He says he has hung many a man on testimony not half so strong and as well linked together as the facts and circumstances are in this case, and he hopes to be employed in the case when the indictment is found.

Dr. Percy Benton is in Mt. Vernon attending circuit court. Miss Helen Thurmond is progressing nicely with her school. She has about 30 pupils and is not only a fine teacher, but is a true democrat, as well as a christian lady. J. B. Farmer, our clever operator and R. R. agent who was badly hurt, is improving nicely and will recover without having to have his foot amputated. There was quite a number of our democrats, who attended the Goebel memorial meeting last Saturday at Mt. Vernon. Bro. Pike filled his appointment with Buckeye church last Saturday and Sunday. Miss Nannie Yaden, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Rowland, has returned home and her "fellow" was in town the next night after she landed.

Last week we stated that a certain man who went to Frankfort as an intimidator said on his return that they had concluded that all they could do was to kill Goebel. The man referred to was Wm. Prewitt, called Bill, and he made the statement to Mr. Lee Williams, telling him to tell his father that if Goebel had not been killed at that time it would be done before next Saturday night. Prewitt had made two trips to Frankfort and this was on Sunday night before the assassination. Mr. Williams is a son of John Williams and belongs to a family of reliable people. The old gentleman is a republican and Lee says Prewitt thought he was too. He says he will make affidavit that Prewitt told him as stated, though I hear that the latter is denying it.

Now Mr. Editor the people of our town, who read the daily papers, wish to ask you a few questions. They want to know what has become of some of those gentlemen whose names were so conspicuous in almost every paper before and even up to the assassination of Gov. Goebel. We saw where they were making bloodthirsty speeches in Eastern Kentucky and that they were soliciting and contracting with men to go to Frankfort and saw where they were making fiery talks and offering inducements to the steps of the live resolutions even on the steps of the State Capitol building just before the assassination of Gov. Goebel. But since that time we have not seen their names in the papers, nor read a word or a line from them; and we wish to know what has become of them and if you can tell what has caused their sudden change or why they are not heard from any more. These are pertinent questions and we hope you can answer them.

(They have all gone to the woods to hide till the storm blows over or for good if they are indicted with the other assassins.—Ed.)

KINGSVILLE.

Our popular station agent, Jerry Ragin, formerly of Covington, has gone to Ludlow, where he is to be married to a Miss Donovan, of that place. Mr. Ragin and bride are expected here in a few days and will board at the Pennybacker Hotel. Mrs. Pearce has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. McKee. Miss Gertrude Pennybacker visited her sister in Somerset Monday and Tuesday. Claude Pennybacker has returned to his work at Somerset. Fontaine Dishon was down from Moreland a few days last week. William Reynolds and son, John, of the C. S. stonemason crew, spent last week at their home here. Jas. Gant, night operator here, went to Burgin Tuesday to work. John Howe will succeed him at this office. E. M. C.

HE FOOLED THE SURGEONS. All doctors told Benck Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest, true cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

MISS ALICE DRYE, of Hustonville, and friend, Mr. F. B. Monnett, of Newark, O., were here yesterday.

MR. A. H. BASTIN, the telephone magnate, has placed us under obligations again for news over his wire.

THE marriage of Mrs. Mattie Gibson, the handsome widow of Rev. John Bell Gibson, is noted in our Lancaster letter and the legions of friends she has here send hearty congratulations.

MR. E. P. WOODS, who was one of the 25 who enjoyed yesterday the feast spread by Col. and W. H. Dudderar in honor of the 45th anniversary of their marriage, dropped in to tell us that everybody had a good time and ate turkey and good things till they couldn't rest.

MR. JOHN PEARL sends us money for a year's subscription to the I. J. for J. R. Hardin at Fariston, and writes that Mr. Hardin says we are the only newspaper men in the State who stick to the party through thick and thin, and ours is the only paper he expects to take in the future.

ON account of bad weather the London fair grounds were not offered Monday, but will be sold Monday, March 12. See "ad."

SNOW began to fall a little after 10 last night and this morning it was still at it, with the ground six or eight inches covered with the white mantle.

IF "The Federal Soldier" who sends us an original poem on Gov. Goebel, will furnish us with his name, not necessarily for publication, we will print his lines.

NEW TRIAL.—James Price, aged 16, who got a year for shooting George Peis in Rockcastle, was granted a new trial. If convicted again he will be sent to the Houses of Reform.

NOTICE.—J. H. Albright writes us to say that farmers and others interested in tobacco growing are requested to meet at J. T. Cherry's store in Broadhead next Monday night, 19th.

A YOUNG woman, who went to Frankfort sight seeing, saw everything she wanted to see but Taylor. Finally she appealed to a soldier on guard at his office, saying "Mister want you please let Mr. Taylor out a little while, I do so much want to see him before I go." But even on this touching appeal they wouldn't "let him out."

THE social at Mrs. Joe S. Rice's last evening for the purpose of raising money to buy a carpet for the Baptist church was largely attended and a nice little sum was realized. Light refreshments and confections were served and all had a pleasant time. An oyster supper is to be given by the ladies of the same church next Thursday night in a down town store room.

DALTON is headquarters for good watch work.

OUR Highland correspondent must send his name if he wishes his letter to appear in this paper. Anonymous communications don't go.

OLD MOCK WHISKY.—G. D. Weatherford has a contract for full control and sale of Old Mock Whisky in Hustonville. H. C. Mock.

STRAYED or stolen a black Berkshire sow of about 100 pounds. Has one ring in nose and the other out. Reward when returned to R. C. Warren.

BRUCE & WONER.—That is the style of the firm now, John H. Woner having bought an interest in Mr. I. M. Bruce's livery business. Mr. Woner has been with Mr. Bruce for years and is well up in the business.

HELD OVER.—Robert Bowling, who cut Charles Brockman's throat at Mrs. Crabtree's some days ago, was tried before Judge Bailey and held over till circuit court in $150, which he failed to give. Brockman's throat is rapidly improving.

MARSHAL SHANNON arrested a man at Kingsville, yesterday, whose name we could not get, charged with stealing J. M. Crawford's horse in Rockcastle, and took him to Mr. Vernon. Mr. Shannon thinks he is on the trail of the man who robbed the post-office here.

$1.25.—We will send this paper and the Illustrated Kentuckian one year for $1.25, or just 25c more than the price of each alone. The Kentuckian is a 20-page illustrated monthly magazine, published in Louisville at $1 a year, or 10c a copy. Now is the time to get it almost for nothing.

THE amount of freight and passenger business handled at Moreland, on the Cincinnati Southern, is enormous. Agent B. P. Shewmaker tells us that during the month of January his receipts were $3,316.89 against $2,083.87 in the same month of 1899, an increase of $1,233.02, though January is considered a dull month.

IN FULL.—Agent W. A. Tribble received from the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Co., Wednesday, a check for $1,800 in full of the policy held by Mrs. A. K. Denny on her residence and furniture recently burned. When the loss is total this company pays the policy and does not try to beat the insured out of his just dues.

PENSIONS.—Casey citizens must draw at least $75,000 in pensions yearly, so it will be seen that the "roll of honor" in that county is a large one. Close to $12,500 of it is handled every three months by the Commercial Bank of Liberty and its officers say that there are a great many of "Uncle Sam's" checks that they never see. Pensions and revenue derived from the sale of timber go a long way toward supporting the people of that county while the rich Green river bottoms do about the rest.

BIG DINNER.—Mr. and Mrs. Waverly Hamilton gave a big dining Tuesday in honor of her father, Col. W. H. Dudderar, and a number of his friends. Following are those who were present and who enjoyed the fine dinner and hospitality of the clever pair: Col. W. H. Dudderar and lady, Dr. L. B. Cook and lady, Dr. J. K. VanArsdale and lady, E. P. Woods and lady, E. R. Gentry and lady, S. J. Embry and lady, Mrs. Kate Dudderar and Messrs. S. H. Shanks, John Bright and Harvey Helm. Our junior was invited, but was deprived the pleasure of attending by a press of business.

OUR Goebel monument fund grows apace. Since our last issue, in which was reported $12, we have received 50c from J. O. McAllister, Ove. Mo., J. H. Jones, Emory Gap, Tenn., $1. R. E. Tanner, Harriman, Tenn., $1. J. A. Thornton, same office, $1. J. S. Reppert, Orlando, $1. The latter says: I hope that a persistent and continued effort will be made to have every supporter of Goebel in the State contribute something, even a nickel or dime, for the monument, and let the inscription be, "In memory of William Goebel, who died, a martyr, for the cause of the common people." I fully endorse your course. Language is impotent to express the indignation of every right thinking mind.

SOME 25 years ago, when Dr. Lee F. Huffman first opened a dental office here he filled a very bad tooth for Tinsley Spoonamore, much against the wishes of the latter's old friend, Peyton Embry, who insisted that Mr. Spoonamore give an experienced man the job. It was about the only tooth he could chew on but some time ago he decided to have all his teeth taken out, and the one that Dr. Huffman filled had to come out too. He sent it to the doctor at Lexington, who now has it on exhibition in his office—just as good at it was the day the filling was put in. It was one of the many good jobs Dr. Huffman has done in dentistry, which have made him rank with the foremost of his profession.

WE have plenty of corn, hay and all kinds of feed continually on hand. J. H. Baughman & Co.

NEW FIRM.—S. J. Embry, Jr., and Jas Engleman have formed a partnership and will do a jewelry and watch repairing business in a window in Penny's drug store. They have bought what jewelry Mr. Penny had on hand, will add to it at once. Mr. Engleman is an experienced jeweler and both of the young men being popular, they should do well.

STOLE AN OWL.—A colored man tells us that he asked another if he had any chickens for sale. He answered "no" but he would bring him some that night. Sure enough at 1 o'clock he came with a sack and said there were two in it. He got his money and the next morning the purchaser discovered that one was a nice fat hen and the other an owl. On being sent for and being told of the imposition, he said they were both on the same roost and that it was the first mistake he had made in 15 years at the business and he had rather be caught for stealing than that it should get out that he made such a mistake. If any body has missed a fat hen this may lead to the arrest of the thief.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Horace Haley, aged 16, and Miss Rosa Davis, 14, were married at Bloomington, Ill.

Miss Mattie D. Aiken, 14, and Frank McCullum, aged 16, were married at Atlantic City, N. J.

Yesterday at 10 o'clock, Mr. F. Kenley Tribble, of this county, and Miss Bessie Watts were married at the residence of the bride's father in Fayette county, Rev. R. H. Lampkin officiating. The attendants were Miss Jennie Watts, a sister of the bride, and Mr. W. H. Murphy, of Lincoln, Miss Laura Mahan and Prof. L. C. Bosley, of Danville. After hearty congratulations were said and an elegant lunch enjoyed the bridal party drove to Lexington, where Mr. and Mrs. Tribble took the train for Louisville, where they will remain a few days and go to Hopkinsville to visit the parents of the groom till about March 1, when they will be at home to their friends at "Castle Cobb." The groom's many friends congratulate him on his final determination to become a Benedict and wish for him all the joys that a happy union to such a lovable and excellent lady as we hear he has won, insures. He is a high toned, model and exemplary man and deserves the good wife we are sure he has gotten. May blessings crowd upon them and marriage be all that they have pictured it.

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

At London, Cam Williams was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for killing Charley Jones.

The lady Maccabees of Junction City will give a surprise party and candy pulling Thursday night. Admission 10 and 15c.

The Lexington soldiers who have been guarding the Kendalls at Nicholasville have been ordered home. There never was the slightest reason for sending them thither.

A brother of Tom Baker, who was assassinated while under guard at Manchester, is in Frankfort and is very anxious that the brute who killed Gov. Goebel be found. He believes the man who shot him is the one who killed his brother.

Mr. W. B. Anderson celebrated his 76th birthday at Barbourville with a big supper. He is the oldest citizen in the town and has lived there 56 years, during 36 of which he has held office. He was in the convention which nominated Lincoln for president.

F. Krueger, the Mt. Vernon contractor and builder, has completed a $11,800 court-house at Hyden, Leslie county, which Architect McDowell, of Louisville, pronounces good in every particular. He also built two $3,000 brick business houses there.

Mr. Gilbert has presented the bill to establish a National park at the battlefield of Perryville. It is for the purpose of marking the field of some of the most remarkable maneuvers of the brilliant fighting in the war of the rebellion. The park is to be called "Perryville National Military Park."

KENTUCKIANS IN TENNESSEE.

ENDORSE THE INTERIOR JOURNAL AND SEND MONEY FOR GOEBEL MONUMENT.

EMORY GAP, TENN.—I endorse every thing that you have said in your paper in regard to the assassination of Gov. Wm. Goebel and hope that every man who was connected with the killing will be brought to justice and hanged. I am sure this would get Taylor and lots of others. I have two Kentucky friends, R. E. Tanner and J. A. Thornton, here who are also strong Goebel men, and each of us send $1 to go towards erecting a monument over the grave of Gov. Wm. Goebel, the greatest and grandest man that ever lived or died. JOHN H. JONES.

MORELAND.—Mr. B. P. Shewmaker leaves Saturday night for Salisbury, N. C., as a witness in a law suit of Powell & Harper vs. Southern Railway. He will take his wife with him and after business is through with expects to stop at Asheville, N. C., and spend a few days. Our night operator, V. W. Owens, of Crab Orchard, thinks there is no sheet like the I. J. and he is the first man to devour the news when it comes in. Mr. Owens is a first class operator and he would fill the bill as regular man, if there was no telephone connection in here. As it is he talks to Queen Lillian over the phone so much I fear he will have to be fired.

A U. S. postal detective is investigating the Blue Grass Blade with a likelihood that Old Charley will be indicted again for using the mails to disseminate blasphemous and obscene matter.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after weeks induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store."

"Sweet Bells Jangled Out of Tune and Harsh."

Shakespeare's description fits thousands of women. They are cross, dependent, sickly, nervous—a burden to themselves and their families. Their sweet dispositions are gone, and they like the bells, seem sadly out of tune. But there is a remedy. They can use

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It brings health to the womanly organism, and health there means well-poised nerves, calmness, strength. It restores womanly vigor and power. It tones up the nerves which suffering and disease have shattered. It is the most perfect remedy ever devised to restore weak women to perfect health, and to make them attractive and happy. $1.00 at all druggists.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

LIBERTY.

Miss Annie Belden spent a few days last week with friends and relatives in Hustonville.

The Methodists are having a revival and much interest is being manifested by the few but devout members of their church.

H. C. Brown and wife have gone to housekeeping, and the new couple have the best wishes of all.

Rev. J. Q. Montgomery has sold his property to George E. Stone, and it is with regret we learn the former contemplates leaving us next year.

Quite a number of the young people were entertained at the residence of Mrs. Pierce on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Minor. It was an enjoyable affair and long to be remembered.

The "Whipp Bros' Hotel," which has formerly been known as the Napier Hotel, has been newly furnished and, under the management of Mrs. J. W. Whipp, is in excellent order to accommodate all.

Mrs. Mattie McRoberts leaves for Louisville next week, where she will remain awhile in behalf of her millinery establishment. She will be better equipped in the future than ever in the past to furnish her customers with the latest styles.

It is certainly true that Liberty has, and continues to improve rapidly. Dwellings are being erected and ere long the new bank and Masonic hall will be completed. It is a building which is, beyond a doubt, an honor to any town.

From reports and outward appearances another one of our bachelor friends will contribute much to the welfare of our town by forming a matrimonial alliance. It seems that Casey and Russell have always been near and dear.

We were honored with a visit from the business manager of the L. J. last week, and from the number of new subscriptions obtained in our vicinity, his recent publications have surely touched the hearts of many, who have never before realized his paper's indispensability.

EARTH AND SUN.

We observe that our friends Bobbitt and Hughes, are exercised as to the relative positions of earth and sun in summer and winter. The time is very inopportune for the discussion of scientific problems; but could we direct our minds out of our present political maelstrom to things celestial, no doubt the gain would be immense.

Our friend Bobbitt is off the track altogether. Our friend Hughes wants to introduce ocular testimony; this will hardly count in any exact science, there might be illusion. It is a fact, demonstrated beyond cavil, that all the planets revolve around the sun on an elliptical orbit and not in a circle. Take an egg in your hand and look down upon it and you get a good idea of the earth's elliptic, the sun in the center and the earth revolving around the edge. The earth's elliptic has a major and a minor axis, or diameter, the one several thousand miles longer than the other. To be brief, as this is dull reading and unintelligible to many; in the winter season the earth moves around the end of its orbit and by the major axis, and therefore is at a greater distance from the sun.

Closely related to this problem and to be explained by means of it, is another very interesting one and of very considerable importance, especially to country people and those who propose to keep sun or meridian time. Take up any standard almanac and we find: "Sun fast" and "sun slow." At present writing, Feb. 9th, the sun is 14 1/2 minutes slower than mean time, and therefore runs sun or meridian time only 7 1/2 minutes faster than railroad or standard time. On Nov. 1st the sun will be 18 minutes fast, hence on that day the clock set by sun or meridian time, will be just 40 minutes faster than railroad time. This creates much confusion and mystery among those aiming to keep sun time. Will our friends please to explain this problem? Explanation simple. J. S. R.

Orlando, Ky.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. The Hall's Family Pills are the best.

AN EDITOR'S LIFE SAVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial, bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles, my lungs were restored to their healthy state—B.
